Hi did a 3-way reboot and Windows 10 installed successfully. I appreciate your help. I can no longer get into the install because I get an error saying "Windows cannot be installed on this partition." I tried one of the Windows 8 ISO images and it did the same thing. I have selected the partition that is between the computer and the SSD to install Windows 10 but I get an error saying Windows cannot be installed on this partition. Could you please help me? Windows 10 Professional ISO I have two SATA 4 drive RAID set with the following partitions: The Western NC over-writing the Recovery Partition. If I have to choose a different drive for the boot sector, would you recommend that I choose the same drive that I installed Windows on first? I intend to restore the RAID once the install is successful. Thanks for the help. Regards, Tom I am a student and this is my first time using Windows.
